The Power of Motivation

Dear amazing students,

Welcome to this inspiring edition of our school E-magazine! Today we dive into the electrifying world of “motivation” and how it can transform your school life and beyond. As students, you are the energy that drives every achievement. Motivation is the secret ingredient that turns ordinary tasks into stepping stones for greatness. It teaches you to look beyond appearances—just like not judging a book by its cover—and discover the brilliant ideas and hidden strengths in yourselves and others.

When you stay motivated, you:

Set daring goals and chase them with unstoppable passion.

Turn every challenge into a chance to learn and grow.

Inspire your friends to believe in their own potential.

Build unshakeable confidence that shines in every project and presentation.

So, dear students, keep the motivation fire burning bright. Share your enthusiasm, celebrate every small win, and remember that each effort you make writes a bold chapter in your own success story.

Stay driven, stay inspired, and let your actions spark a ripple of positivity across our school community!

Happy reading and keep shining!

Mathematics of life

$$\text{Life} + \text{Love} = \text{Happy}$$

$$\text{Life} - \text{Love} = \text{Sad}$$

$$2 \text{ Life} = \text{Happy} + \text{Sad}$$

$$\therefore \text{Life} = \frac{\text{Happy} + \text{Sad}}{2}$$

$$\therefore \text{Life} = \frac{1}{2} \text{ Happy} + \frac{1}{2} \text{ Sad}$$

That's Real Life. Enjoy it

Did you know?

The number 9 is known as the magic number in mathematics. When any number is multiplied by 9 and the digits of the product are added together, the final sum always equals 9.

For example : * $8 \times 9 = 72$

$$* 7 + 2 = 9$$

Magic of Mathematics

1. Think of a 3 - digit number in which all the digits are the same, such as 222 or 888.
2. Add the digits together.
3. Now divide to original 3 - digit number by the sum obtained in step 2.

You will always get 37 as the answer.

The Little Flowers

Five little flowers growing in a row,

The first one said “I’m purple you know!

The second one said, “I am pink as you see”

The third one said “I’m blue like the sea”.

The fourth one said, “I’m a very red fellow”.

And the fifth one said, “My colour is yellow”.

Then out comes the sun, big and bright

And five little flowers smiled in delight.

My Dream

I flap my wings and fly in the sky
And dancing in clouds across the sky
I sing in joy and grace
Over rivers that sparkle and stream
The world looks very beautiful and far
But I wake – It was my dream

Poem

Do not cut me,
cried the tree.
Because I give you
Rain free.

In my cool shade
you rest,
Eat my fruits
that are best.

Take in my fresh

Let me live my

One word must start each prayer.
One hope will raise our spirits,
One touch can show you care.
One voice can speak with wisdom,
One heart can know what's true.
One life can make the difference,
You see, it's up to you!

A True Winner

Once a king decided to build a great highway for the people of his kingdom. Before it was thrown open to the public, the king announced a contest to decide who would be the traveller on the highway. Anyone could participate. The rich brought out their fanciest carriages and clothes. Others made elaborate hairstyles for the journey. The not-so-rich just walked or jogged along in their everyday clothes. The entire day people travelled along the highway. At the end of the road they all had one complaint – there was a huge pile of stones and dirt on the highway which had made their travel uncomfortable.

In the evening a man came to the king. His clothes were dirty and he was holding a bag in his dirty hand. With great respect he greeted the king and held out the bag towards him saying, “Your Majesty, I stopped on the way to clean a pile of stones and dirt. Under the pile I found a bag of gold. It should be returned to its owner.”

“You are the owner”, replied the king. “Oh no, your Majesty”, replied the man, “I have never owned so much money”. “Since you are the winner of the contest”, said the king “You own the bag now. You not only stopped to clean the pile that everyone else ignored but also brought the bag of gold to me! You are a good citizen and I need many more like you!”.

The Tailor and the Elephant

Once there lived a tailor in a village. An elephant also lived in the same village. The elephant used to go to river to take a bath. On the way he visited the tailor's shop everyday. The tailor used to give him fruits to eat. They become good friends. One day the tailor was not in a good mood. As usual when the elephant came to his shop, he pricked a needle in elephant's trunk instead of giving him something to eat. The elephant got hurt. He was shocked. Surprised and also got energy, but he silently went away. He reached the river. He filled his trunk with muddy water and came back to the tailor's shop and sprayed the muddy water in his shop. The elephant spoiled all the new clothes of the customers. The tailor was splashed with dirt. He was shocked with elephant's act but he was not angry with the elephant. He came out of his shop and touched the elephant with love and affection. He felt 'sorry' to the elephant. Then he bought a fruit for him and the elephant ate the fruit and both became friends again.

The Ant and the Dove

One hot day, an ant was searching for some water. After walking around for some time, she came to a spring. To reach the spring, she had to climb up a blade of grass. While making her way up, she slipped and fell into the water. She would have drowned, if a dove up a nearby tree had not seen her. Seeing that the ant was in trouble, the dove quickly plucked off a leaf and dropped it into the water near the struggling ant. The ant moved towards the leaf and climbed up there. Soon it carried her safely to dry ground. By the time, a hunter nearby was throwing out his net towards the dove, hoping to trap it. Guessing what he was about to do, the ant quickly bit him on the heel. Feeling the pain, the hunter dropped his net. The dove flew away safely.
